

Position Title: Anti-Violence Program Legal Advocate
Reports to: Anti-Violence Program Director

The Anti-Violence Program at Outfront Minnesota is a broad-based effort to end violence and harassment against and within LGBTQ-identified communities in Minnesota. We work to build safety and power of survivors and community members as well as work to create opportunities for support and healing through the provision of crisis intervention, advocacy, counseling, community education and outreach. To attain equity for LGBTQ people, we approach our work through an intersectional lens that honors survivors' many layered identities. We believe that everyone has the right to be safe from harm regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity/expression. We strive to be victim/survivor-centered and trauma informed in all of our service provision.

OutFront Minnesota is working to make equity for LGBTQ and allied people a reality in our state. The Legal Advocate reports to the Anti-Violence Director, and plays a critical role in the success of the organization. The Legal Advocate provides front line support for people who have been or are in fear of being victims of intimate partner violence. The Legal Advocate position works directly with Hennepin County Domestic Abuse Service Center (DASC), and is housed in the DASC offices with 12 hours a month for Outfront office time.
